

To Whom It May Concern,

I am responding to ask that you not make any rulings or judgements against the Indiana "No-call Law". These calls are used to sell an item or service. These items would be better sold through the written word or a face-to-face presentation. I do not want any business calling me at home trying to sell their goods or services. Thank-you!